

September 4, 1930

Carl Ziesman Drops Dead Wednesday A. M.

Carl Ziesman, 86, a highly respected citizen of this city, and a native of Germany, dropped dead at his home in the west part of town, Wednesday morning at about eight o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Ziesman were at breakfast when his sudden death occurred. Mrs. Ziesman left the breakfast room to attend to some duties in another part of the house and upon her return to the dining room found the sprawled form of her husband upon the floor, he having fallen from the chair, upon which he was sitting during the meal. Mrs. Ziesman did what she could to revive him, but he had already passed into the Great Beyond before physicians could be summoned.

The deceased was born in Berlin, Germany, and came to this country in his early youth. He was one of the pioneers of Brown county, having lived here for almost forty years. He leaves his widow and six children to mourn his loss—three girls and three boys. The latter are Emil, Herman and Hugo, while the daughters are Mrs. Herman Pigors, living south of town; Mrs. W. F. Burde, of Draper, and E. R. Bechard, of Draper.

The funeral will be held from St. John's Lutheran church on Friday afternoon at 2:30, conducted by Rev. F. E. Wilke. The remains will be laid to rest in Groton cemetery.